

“Let’s do a play!”

Fall 2020 ONLINE One Day Workshop for YAS 4 (9th – 12th grade)

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH

12:00pm – 4:00pm PST

(Students will be given breaks!)

*Take a deep-dive into Paula Vogel’s
Tony-Award winning play INDECENT with Sara Widzer*

A play that confronts the same questions that Sara asks of all our high school students who study at the institute:

What does it mean to be an artist?

What adversity and advantage do we face every day?

How, as storytellers, are we able to give breath and life to everyone’s stories, especially the stories of those who are often unheard and unseen?

Structured like the first day of rehearsal, we will talk about why this story must be told and the responsibility we have as artists to tell all of it:

the good and the bad; the ugly and the beautiful.

For as artists, it is our duty to “to hold a mirror up to nature,” and before we can do that for our audience, we must do that for ourselves.

Join us as we explore, not only the love story between two women, but between a group of artists and the theatre.

(INDECENT contains adult themes & mature subject matter)

Although we do our best to maintain the above schedules, please note that classes are subject to change.

Tuition $150 • Register online

For more info contact Liza Monjauze, Program Director • liza@strasberg.edu
The Lee Strasberg Theatre & Film Institute • 7936 Santa Monica Blvd. West Hollywood, CA 90046